Name	Division	Department/Area	Status
DuJuan Green	Social Sciences and Humanities	Administration of Justice	Part-time
My name is DuJuan Green. I'm an Adjunct Faculty Member in the Social Sciences and Humanities Division. I am in the Administration of Justice Department. I served 17.5 years in the Active Duty Air Force and Air National Guard component, deploying to Bahrain and Iraq in support of Operations DESERT STORM and IRAQI FREEDOM. During my military service, I held two career fields: Law Enforcement Specialist and Healthcare Administration Specialist. I previously worked as a sworn officer for the United States Capitol Police in Washington, D.C., and I am currently a full-time sworn officer for the Palo Alto Police Department in the rank of Sergeant. I have held a variety of positions. As the only African-American instructor in the AJ Department, I have been able to successfully focus on the needs of my (diverse) student body in a fair and equitable manner. My diverse background and experiences have led to thoughtful discussions on race and crime, shared governance of each other's feelings and status in life, and an overall knowledge of policing in America. I even helped facilitate the hiring of a Latinx female student from my very first class! Please consider me for a position on the IPBT.

1. My experience working with a wide range of students from diverse backgrounds, along with my own personal experience in higher education as a first-generation student inform both my philosophy and day to day work. My goal is to help investigate ways that the committee might take part in creating a campus environment that minimizes achievement gaps and maximizes student achievement. 2. I think that diversity is key to appropriately planning both programs offered as well as services requested. It is imperative that the committee be well informed of the needs of those students that sometimes fall off all too easily.

Ishmael Tarikh	Social Sciences and Humanities	Political Science	Part-time
It is with humble reflection, and a strong sense of duty that I seek to serve on IPBT. The seat I seek to fill is designated for a Part Time Faculty member (which I am). It has been a valiant struggle to attain this designated seat, and it should be held by a dedicated servant (which I am). My experiences are broad and deep. Prior to joining the faculty of De Anza I have served as a Faculty Senator and Student Advisor at Chico State University, and been an active faculty member at numerous public schools, colleges, and universities over the past 30 years. At De Anza I have served as the Faculty Advisor to several student groups; At-Large Academic Senator; Co-Chair of a Task Force; Chair of the President Search Committee; member of the Constitution/By laws Revision Task Force; member of the Student Judicial Hearing Board; and member of the Black Faculty and Staff Association. If elected to serve I will be the only Black man on IPBT. Diversity means everything to the fulfillment of the charges of IPBT because disparate representation is the essence of shared governance. I am truly a diversity candidate. Submitted, Ishmael Tarikh
