OLIVIA WANG, ATTORNEY AND ACTIVIST
Tuesday, May 9, 1:30-3:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Olivia Wang is an activist and lawyer who was the 2005 recipient of the Bay Area Jefferson Award which honors those who provide extraordinary community service. After graduating from Stanford University and UC Berkeley's Boalt School of Law, she was awarded a fellowship to work with battered women in prison. Since then, Olivia coordinated a statewide grassroots advocacy group called Free Battered Women and was a staff attorney with Legal Services for Prisoners with Children. She co-founded the California Habeas Project which assists incarcerated survivors of domestic violence. Recently, she volunteered in different prisons around Central and South America, gaining an international perspective on the global prison industrial complex.

ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH RECEPTION
Tuesday, May 9, 3:00-4:00pm, California History Center

Please join us for refreshments after Olivia Wang's presentation to celebrate the start of APA Heritage Month.

SEAN SAN JOSE, ACTOR, PLAYWRIGHT, DIRECTOR AND ACTIVIST
Wednesday, May 10, 11:30am-1:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Sean San José, a native of San Francisco of mainly Filipino and Puerto Rican background, is a proud member of Intersection for the Arts. Sean is Co-Founder and Program Director for their award-winning resident theatre company Campo Santo. He conceived the theatre project “Pieces of the Quilt,” a collection of new, short plays confronting the AIDS epidemic as an homage to his parents who died of AIDS. San José organized and created the AIDS Service Arts organization Alma Delfina Group-Teatro Contra el SIDA to distribute funds and present benefit performances. Recently, he has developed more of his works rooted in the Filipino cultural experiences. Sean and other actors will perform excerpts from his own writings and works by Jessica Hagedorn.

VIETNAMESE STUDENT ASSOCIATION’S CULTURAL NIGHT: “ONE HEART, ONE COUNTRY”
Sunday, May 14, 7:00pm-10:00pm, Smithwick Theater, Foothill College
Admission Fee: $10 in advance, $12 at the door

An evening of dance, music and colorful performances, which celebrate the richness of Vietnamese history and traditions. For tickets, please contact Bao Ngo (408) 802-3135.

SHAILJA PATEL, SLAM POET/SPOKEN WORD ARTIST
Wednesday, May 17, 1:30-3:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Kenyan Indian poet and spoken word artist Shailja Patel has featured at New York’s Lincoln Center and venues across the U.S. She has also drawn standing ovations in London, Glasgow, Vienna, and Nairobi. Shailja will be performing poetry and excerpts from her one-woman spoken-word theater show, Migritude. “Migritude is the mantra to...reclaim voices and stories of migrant colonial subjects from erasures of ‘official’ history...The word itself, a play on Negritude and Attitude, asserts the dignity of outsider status.” Co-sponsored by the Visiting Speaker Series.

ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN STUDENTS FOR LEADERSHIP (APASL) CONFERENCE
Saturday, May 20, Hinson Campus Center, De Anza College
10:00am-4:00pm (Registration begins at 9:30 am)

For more information, contact De Anza College APASL by e-mail at da.apasl@gmail.com or by phone at (408) 674-7568 (Dwayne) or (408) 316-2588 (Tony)

APA QUEER IDENTITIES PANEL (3 SESSIONS)
Tuesday, May 23, 10:30-11:30am; 11:30am-12:30pm; 12:30pm-1:30pm
Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

What are the experiences of, and issues facing gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered Asian Pacific Americans? Join our student and community panelist to find out! Panel members will include Donny Arellis (member of GLBTA, Gay Lesbian Bisexual Transgender Association, San Jose State University); Teresa Peralis (GLBTA member, SJSU); and Letitia Antonia (member of Friday Nights, a youth-focused organization, and founding member of Malaya, a Filipina women’s organizing committee in Santa Clara).

DE ANZA APA STUDENT FILM SHOWCASE
Tuesday, May 23, 6:00-9:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Winning entries from De Anza student filmmakers will be screened at this special showcase featuring appearances and commentaries from the directors and others involved in the productions. Free pizza will be served!
MADISON NGUYEN, SAN JOSE CITY COUNCILMEMBER

“YOU MUST BE THE CHANGE YOU WISH TO SEE IN THE WORLD” – A JOURNEY FOR SOCIAL CHANGE
Wednesday, May 24, 11:30am-12:30pm, California History Center

San Jose’s Madison Nguyen is the first Vietnamese-American elected to public office in Northern California and was also the first Vietnamese-American woman elected to a school board in California. Besides being an active council and school board member, Nguyen has worked as an Associate Ombudsperson with the County of Santa Clara’s office of Human Relations and taught part-time as a sociology instructor at both De Anza and Evergreen Community Colleges. She received her bachelor’s degree in History from the University of California, Santa Cruz, and her Master’s in Social Science from the University of Chicago.

THE GLORIOUS TIME IN ME THAO HAMLET, FILM SHOWING (2 SCREENINGS)
Thursday, June 1, 12:30pm; 5:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Me Thao Thoi Vang Bong (The Glorious Time in Me Thao Hamlet, 2005) directed by Viet Linh, is a film honoring a thousand years of traditional Vietnamese folk music. Set in the idyllic countryside of northern Vietnam, a love triangle ensues between a widower, a master dan day musician and a ca tru singer. The film won the “Rosa Camuna” award at the 21st Bergamo Film Festival in Italy, and has screened at festivals in Japan, Singapore, Belgium and France. The central character played by Don Duong, and his sister, Susie Bui (mother of Timothy Bui, director of Green Dragon) will be guests at the film’s showing.

RE:DEFINITION YOUTH EMPOWERMENT HIP HOP NIGHT
Friday, June 2, 6:00-9:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

An evening of electrifying music and spoken word performances co-sponsored by The President’s Community and Civic Engagement Task Force, Students for Justice (SFJ), and the Muslim Student Association. This event is free, but donations will be accepted by SFJ to benefit the De Anza 8, students who were arrested for protesting during the Colin Powell demonstration in November 2005.

Events co-sponsored by Asian Pacific American Heritage Month and Latino Heritage Month

RACIAL IDENTITY/RACIAL COMPLEXITY PANEL
Monday, May 8, 1:30-3:00pm, Conference Rooms A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Paul Spickard, PhD, professor of History and Asian American Studies at UC Santa Barbara; Wei Ming Dariotis, PhD, professor of Asian American Studies at San Francisco State; and Kevin Johnson, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Professor of Law and Chicana/o Studies at the UC Davis.

MOTHER TONGUE AND THE LOSS OF LANGUAGE
Tuesday, May 9, 12:30-1:30pm, California History Center

Vice President of Instruction Judy Miner and Language Arts Instructor Marc Coronado will be discussing Code Switching and Mother Tongue.

ASIAN LATINA/O INTERSECTIONS
Monday, May 22, 11:30 am-1:30pm, California History Center

A moderated discussion about interactions and coalition building between Asians and Latina/os in the Bay Area.

For more information about these events, contact Marc Coronado at coronadomarc@deanza.edu or Karen Chow at chowkaren@deanza.edu.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE TO THE PUBLIC (UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED) AND WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE. SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST.

For more information about any of the events listed, contact Lena Chang at changlena@deanza.edu or 408-864-8728, or Christine Chai at chaichristine@deanza.edu or 408-864-5560.

Events funded by De Anza Associated Student Body (DASB) and the following sponsors:

Asian Pacific American Staff Association (APASA) • Asian Pacific American Leadership Institute (APALI) • Asian Pacific American Students for Leadership (APASL) • California History Center (CHC) • De Anza College Student Activities • Intercultural/International Studies Division (ICS/IS) • Language Arts Division • Latino Heritage Month Planning Committee • Multicultural Staff Association (MSA) • Muslim Student Association (MSA) • President’s Community and Civic Engagement Task Force • Students for Justice (SFJ) • Vietnamese Student Association (VSA) • Visiting Speaker Series (VSS) • Women’s History Month Planning Committee

Thank you for your support!

APAHM 2006 Planning Committee
Lena Chang, Chair  Christine Chai, Co-Chair

Karen Chow, Tracy Chung-Tabangcura, Marshall Hattori, Herminio Hernando, Tom Izu, K.D. Le, Godfrey Ramos, Rowena Tomaneng, La Donna Yumori-Kaku