

De Anza College Office of Institutional Research and Planning

To: Kathleen Moberg, Dean of Admissions and Assessment

From: Mallory Newell, De Anza Researcher

Date: 5/11/2012

Subject: Enrollment of students without a High School Diploma

---

The tables below display students who applied and enrolled at De Anza College between summer 2011 and spring 2012 who indicated on their admissions application that their highest level of education is either a GED/HS Proficiency, HS Equivalency or No HS Diploma. Table 1 presents the education levels for first time to college students (student population = 1) while table 2 presents the education levels for all enrollment status levels.

Table 1.

First Time Freshmen Students by Education Level
	2011M	2011F	2012W	2012S
	Distinct	Distinct	Distinct	Distinct
	Students	Students	Students	Students
GED/HS Proficiency	76	139	58	48
HS Equivalency	34	71	17	4
No HS Diploma	97	171	60	37
Total	207	381	135	89

---

Table 2.

All Enrollment Status Levels by Education Level
	2011M	2011F	2012W	2012S
	Distinct	Distinct	Distinct	Distinct
	Students	Students	Students	Students
GED/HS Proficiency	548	971	878	881
HS Equivalency	228	407	371	379
No HS Diploma	414	693	625	559
Total	1,190	2,071	1,874	1,819

---